

ELECTRICIAN

About Agventure Limited

Agventure Limited was founded in 2010 with the key focus of grain farming through sustainable conservation Agriculture and crop rotation. With member farms located in Nakuru, Laikipia, Meru, Narok, Uasin Gishu and Nyandarua counties, Agventure has been on the forefront of promoting and advancing the knowledge and practice of rain-fed conservation Agriculture. Through this, Agventure has 2 oil processing factories in Timau and Nakuru.

The electrician will be based in our Nakuru factory reporting to the factory manager.

The Role

Key responsibilities

- To install new electrical systems and equipment, ensuring they meet industry standards and comply with safety regulations
- Electrical system maintenance, fault finding and testing
- Ensuring all power and manual tools are operated and maintained in accordance with health and safety regulations
- Carry out scheduled preventative maintenance and servicing of equipment
- Maintain accurate records of maintenance activities, repairs and installations
- Identify areas of improvement in electrical systems, processes or equipment to enhance efficiency, safety and productivity.
- Prepare cost estimates for electrical projects and procure necessary materials
- Work closely with production, maintenance and other departments to troubleshoot issues and improve the efficiency of electrical systems
- Respond to electrical related emergencies to repair malfunctioning electrical systems and equipment

Knowledge, skills, and experience:

- Certificate, diploma or bachelor's degree in electrical engineering.
- Thorough knowledge of electrical systems, equipment and codes.
- Previous experience as an electrician, preferably in a processing plant.
- EPRA electrician license
- Experience and good understanding of motor controls and automation
- Fast learner and good team player

TimeLine: Please share your applications by 20th November 2024. Shortlisted candidates will be interviewed thereafter.

Please apply by emailing to info@agvke.com a 2-page minimum CV and a 1 page cover letter.

